Mazankowski re-elected

Record of Nomination for Don Mazankowski was held on November 20th, 1983 at 2 o'clock in the Elks Hall at Myrnam. Steve Shybunka, President of the Federal P.C. Constituency and past Mayor of Two Hills opened the Nomination with the singing of O Canada, followed by a short speech stating that he is pleased to see so many fellow Conservatives attend, and that we have to nominate a P.C. Candidate for the upcoming election.

Joe Snosnowski, Mayor of Myrnam, delivered a warm welcome to the executives of the P.C. who have chosen Myrnam for the nomination, adding that it is a great honour and pleasure to be selected. Joe Snosnowski went on to give a brief and personal assessment of M.P. Honourable Don Mazankowski, stating Don has represented the P.C. Party for 15 years and had done so effectively, that there was no closing candidate. "Without any doubt Don is dedicated, very persuasive, tolerant and sincere. Don has delegated all his efforts in defence of Western Canada, has deep concerns for farmers, and the mass unemployment." I feel Don and the P.C. party will solve this intolerant and stagnate recession."

Ron Ruddkowsky, Regional Director, who works with the Constituency Boards and on the Provincial Directors Board, thanked all the M.L.A.'s that were present, adding that he is quite happy to see such a turn out for the nomination.

President of the P.C. Party, Peter Elzinga delivered a short speech, stating that it is a joy to be with Don Mazankowski and the P.C. Party. Peter then read a letter from Brian Mulroney, which states "P.C. has chosen very wisely to select you (Don) for the Nomination".

"The Reading Of Notice" was read by Secretary Anne Toma. This Notice appeared in 14 weekly papers.

Miss Deserie Ruptash officially nominated Don Mazankowski and went on to say that Don is responsive to all constituency needs. Don has not forgotten the grass roots of his constituency, and that throughout Canada he is highly respected. Don was first elected June, 1968, and has held his position four consecutive terms.

Marshall Tindall seconded the nomination. Marshall mentioned that Don is a man of integrity, knowledge and personality. All conservatives appreciate Don, and he can only continue to be an asset to the P.C. Party.

There were no contesting nominations so Don Mazankowski won by acclamation.

In his speech, Don first thanked Deserie Ruptash for her kind, eloquent, and generous words. Don then went on to thank Marshall Tindall for his kind words and his excellent values and wisdom along with his friendship over the years. Don Wednesday, November 23 at 7:30 p.m. the F.G. Miller High School held the Junior/Senior Awards Night. The major awards were: Best All Round Junior/Senior, Citizenship Award, Kates Memorial Award, and the Alexander Rutherford Scholarship Award.

To achieve the Best All Round Junior/Senior Award the student requires a good academic standing, proficient and active in sports, with sportsmanship, leadership, co-operation and contribution to the team and the sport. In the category of general attitude, the student must be positive, major emphasis to be placed on general attitude towards classroom situations, teachers and peers.

Citizenship Award requires the student to be involved with the community (eg. School Community, Sports Community, Health Community, or the public at large) and willingly expending time and effort in community affairs, unselfishly.

Kates Memorial Award is donated by Mr. and Mrs. Ben Kates in honour of their son Sydney, who had a teaching post in 1954 at the High School, became ill and died before his teaching career began.

Alexander Rutherford Scholarship for High School Achievement is a government scholarship the students apply for. To be accepted the student must maintain an average of 80% in five academic subjects.

Before the awards were presented, Bob Tredger, Principal of the High School, delivered a short speech. Mr. Tredger said these awards are visible proof of how hard the students have worked, they have been won fairly, and this is our opportunity to say thank you. "Students this is your night," he added.

Miss Foley, a teacher at the High School, announced the awards and the recipients of them.

Juniors winning awards are:

Award: Art; Recipient: Debra Bugej; Donor: Windsor Club; Presented by: Brian Anderson.

Award: Brailsford Memorial Music Award; Recipient: Garrett Gregoraschuk; Donor: St. George's Lodge #169 AFAM; Presented by: Allan Berg.

Award: Junior Sportsman; Recipient: Murray Palamarek; Donor: Chamber of Commerce; Presented by: Carol Metz.

Award: Junior Sportswoman; Recipient: Kathy Mistol; Donor: Canadian Salt Company; Presented by: Mr. Palamarek.

Award: Special Education 8; Recipient: Lisa Bugera; Donor: B.P.O.E.; Presented by: Bill Schuhmacher.

Award: Special Education 9; Recipient: Cheryl Kadutski; Donor: R.C.M.P.; Presented by: Constable MacKinnon.

went on to say that he is proud and happy to be associated with the P.C. Party. "Most importantly," Don stated, "I thank you the people, for giving me the proud honour of being your candidate in the next upcoming Federal Election." Don said he wishes to retain the trust and confidence, that he has worked hard to develop and nurture, adding that it is a rare privilege to be able to represent the P.C. Party. Don stated that he considers this privilege to be sacred.

Don spoke of the Current Session of the Party, which is completed, adding it has been the most bitter and longest session endured in the House of Commons, lasting 600 days with 20 different closures and votes.

25 Days to Christmas!

Editorial

The Christmas spirit is alive and well

I'd like to take some of your time and relate to you a story which took place last week in Calgary. But first you'll need some background.

I have a younger sister, Dianne Kurpeikis, who has been married for one year and lives with her husband Bob, in Calgary. Bob is a carpenter and has found it extremely difficult to find employment in the city. He's originally from the East, as is Dianne.

This year Bob's family planned a reunion of the family members. He'd not been home for five years so both decided to save and go home for Christmas.

Dianne held one full time position and two part time jobs while Bob went to B.C. to find work. Together they saved their money to make a dream come true.

Over a month ago, they paid for the plane fare. The travel agency they dealt with in Calgary, sent the money to Chieftan/Shamrock in Toronto. You may know the rest. Chieftan went bankrupt - Dianne and Bob were out their money and their trip home.

After making numerous phone calls with no results, Dianne contacted CBC through a friend. They arrived at her house, much to her surprise, with cameras.

She told her story which was aired along with interviews with the travel agency. Dianne was at our parents' place and only watched part of the newscast so she missed the newsmen asking her to contact the newsroom as soon as possible.

When she finally got the message, she went down to CBC where she was given an envelope marked:

To Dianne and her husband - Two of God's children

Inside the envelope was an anonymous note which read:

"In the spirit of Jesus Christ, whose birthday we celebrate at this time of year, Merry Christmas".

And enough cash to purchase two plane tickets.

I have never doubted that there are special people in this world but we are constantly forced to focus on the bad. I thought I'd share with you not only Dianne's story but also the reassurance it brings.

Elk Point U.C.W.

by Irene Magnusson

Like so many organizations in small towns, the membership grows older, the active members fewer, and the load heavier for those who attempt to carry on. Still, the United Church Women of Elk Point know why they are involved. They know no one gets 'something for nothing' - even if the cause is ace-high.

With no funds available to the church from outside sources, the U.C.W. makes its continuing stand, raising money for church and community needs in the ways they know how.

Rummage sales are old standbys. Donations have traditionally been generous. It's just the work that gets more demanding as numbers dwindle.

Marian Tredger, long-time President of the U.C.W., has moved away, leaving Edith Mitchell and Irene Miller to carry on in her place. Grace Barwick is secretary; Lena Stepa treasurer.

Grace Pinder convenes the rummage sales, with assistance from Audrey Lorensen, Della Povaschuk, Bea Williams, Barbara Millholland, Buzzie Peleshosky and Muriel Holthe, along with the others. There is much sorting to do, arranging and pricing. When they find time, they also prepare garments unsuitable for sale into rags for garages, etc.

Occasionally the U.C.W. has outfitted fire victims from the many racks, when disaster has struck.

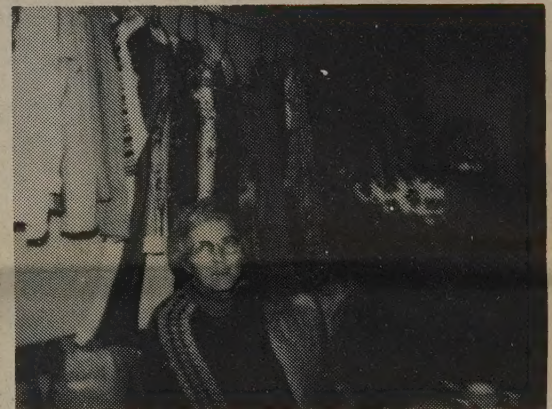

Besides clothing, many articles find their way into the shelves. There are books, odd dishes, ornaments, boots, shoes, patterns, housekeeping tools and crafts, and many more. Countless pieced quilts have found their source of materials at the Rummage store. Good material has been re-cut and sewn into useful garments.

Now, for a few weeks the little store will be locked up,

Please!

Anyone having any Christmas related articles, poems or short stories they would like printed in the upcoming Special Christmas edition is asked to bring them into the office on or before December 7.

Thank you for your help!

Della Povaschuk packs bags and trims rags, while Buzzie Peleshosky checks a garment's size for a customer.

and the ladies will enjoy a well-earned rest. Once again, the faithful will be in for a long day on their feet, doing the things volunteers have always done, which is giving of themselves for others.

Arrest made

Following a break and enter in Bonnyville, the Bonnyville R.C.M.P. have arrested a group of people. Further investigation by the Bonnyville R.C.M.P. in conjunction with the Elk Point R.C.M.P. led to two of the people from the group being caught with the September 12th, 1983 break-in of the Elk Point Gulf Service Station. The pair will appear in court later this month.

No names have been released as of yet.

Kitchen corner ates

Christmas is a time for entertaining family and friends. Two of my favorite recipes for buffets and cocktail parties are:

Cheese Ball

1 large package Philadelphia cream cheese (softened)

1 tin small deveined shrimp
parsley

Cream cheese, blend in shrimp and form into a ball. Roll in parsley and chill. Serve with crackers, chips, etc.

Creamy Herb Dip

2 to 3 cloves garlic
2 tbsp. lemon juice
1 egg
1/2 c. grated parmesan cheese
1/2 c. small parsley sprigs
1 tsp. leaf basil, crumbled
1/2 tsp. salt
dash cayenne pepper
1/2 c. olive or vegetable oil
1/2 c. plain yogurt

Place garlic, lemon juice, cheese, parsley, basil, salt and cayenne in container of electric blender. Cover. Whirl until smooth, scraping down sides of blender. Remove center of blender cover. With blender running, pour oil in a thin stream into mixture, stopping once or twice to scrape down sides of blender; mixture should be thick. Stir in yogurt. Scrape into serving bowl. Cover, refrigerate 2 hours.

Christmas Candle

Use any favorite glass (brandy snifter, etc.) and make a delightful Christmas candle. Melt wax, insert candle wick in middle of glass and pour slightly cool wax slowly around wick to top of glass. Whip remaining wax with electric egg beater and spread over outside of glass. Decorate with sparkles, sprigs of holly, etc.

NATIONAL CRIME PREVENTION WEEK - November 27th - December 3rd has prompted the Elk Point Lioness Club, with support of the Elk Point R.C.M. Police, to become involved in the communities' participation, partnership and awareness of Crime Prevention.

Through the Elementary

From "The Sergeant's Desk"

School students, the Lioness Club will be forwarding a survey to the families served by the School District in order to determine the interest of the community in starting Crime Prevention programs. If enough interest is shown by the survey, the Elk Point Lioness Club, with the support of the Elk Point R.C.M. Police will begin any number of Crime Prevention programs in the New Year.

The four (4) Crime Prevention Programs include Neighbourhood Watch, Block Parent, Lady Beware and Operation Identification.

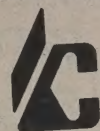

NEIGHBOURHOOD WATCH is a program that increases public participation in fighting crime in the community by encouraging and instructing individuals in prompt and accurate reporting of suspicious activity, suspicious persons and suspicious vehicles to the police.

BLOCK PARENT is a program designed to protect children in case of accident or danger. Responsible adults on each street are encouraged to volunteer and register with the police. After receiving trained instruction, they are qualified to place a "BLOCK PARENT" symbol in the window of their home. The children are taught to look for this symbol if in trouble.

LADY BEWARE is a program designed to outline to women the types of crime females are most vulnerable to, to educate on how best to avoid becoming involved in a problem and the importance of reporting those incidents (crimes) that often go unreported.

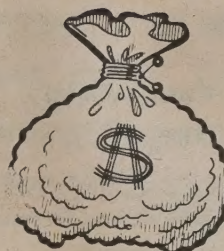

OPERATION IDENTIFICATION is a program whereby valuables are marked or engraved permanently with a unique number (e.g. driver's license number) for positive identification in case the item is lost or stolen.

The police and the community at large are partners in preventing crime. Many people want to get involved but do not know how. These programs will give the community a chance to find out what they can do to prevent crime.

U.C.W. Bazaar

The annual United Church Womens' Bazaar was held on Saturday, November 26, from 2:00 to 4:30 p.m. in the United Church hall. A tempting array of baked goods was offered by Ila Borowsky, Grace Barwick, Irene Lindquist, and Ann Buck. A lovely assortment of hand-made articles, along with various novelties were offered by Buzzy Pelechovsky, Violet McFadyen, Lillian Demchuk and Irene Miller. Unicef Christmas cards were offered and the C.G.I.T. had calendars for sale.

The United Church Women consisting of Alma Holliday, Marion Smith, Bea Sumpton, Nellie Rushfeldt, Kay McAleese, Bea Williams, Muriel Holthe, Grace Pinder, Nancy Cox and Gladys Sheplaw, served tea and coffee along with mini sandwiches and delightful dainties to all who attended.

The profits from the Bazaar will go towards the youth of the church (for sending them to camp, etc.) also to pay for the janitor, and some of the money will be applied towards the new church roof.

Citizens enjoyed the Bazaar.

Business of the Month

Inside the St. Paul & District Co-op

The store had its early beginnings in the present Dave's Pizza building way back in the early 40's. In 1946, the Co-op moved to the now Prag Plumbing building. In those days, operation of a combined dry goods, hardware, meat, produce and grocery story was no easy matter. The store was not self-serve. Customers brought a list to the counter and the clerks scurried about to fill it. The items were duly entered in a small record book, one per family, and tallied.

Packaging was not a priority then. The clerks filled orders for white and brown sugar, beans and rice from bulk stock. The customer very carefully carried the goods home in a brown paper bag.

The Co-op then opened its doors where the Credit Union is located. On May 3, 1978 the Co-op moved into its new building where it is still located today.

Rodger McLaughlin has been the manager of the Co-op for the past three years, and has been associated with the Co-op since 1960, starting out as a grocery clerk and working his way up. Previous to managing the store here, Rodger was the manager of the Mannville Co-op for six years. Rodger

Grad '84 Report by Carol Babcock - Grad. Pres.

The theme chosen for graduation this year is "Beyond the Horizon". Maroon, pink and white will be the color scheme for the decorations in the gymnasium. We are ordering our decorations from Millie Orr, who has some really good ideas on the basic designing of the gymnasium decor. Mrs. Orr will also be handling the table decorations at the banquet.

The Students' Union is also suffering from the apparent recession, and we grade twelves are doing our best to raise money for the grad. Fund-raisers presently going on are: noon hour hot food sales in the cafeteria at school; running of the Wapiti Shop; record - dances. We even had a bake table at the Flea Market last Saturday. We hope to hold an Alumni Dance over the Christmas holidays and a Chicken Supper sometime in January.

We haven't chosen our guest speaker for the exercises yet, but there have to be some surprises! See you Saturday, May 19th!

A Remember - A Home and School Meeting will be held at the F.G. Miller High School the evening of Tuesday, December 6th.

In 1968 a brand new store was open (upper left), and now, in 1978, the Co-op moves to the even larger premises of its fine new store.

stated that most of his staff have worked for the Co-op for quite some time. Lois Yaremkevich the longest employed, has been a cashier with the Elk Point Co-op for 17 years. Terry Gusnowski is the Assistant Manager and has been with the Co-op for the last 2 1/2 years.

The prices for all Co-op stores are set by the Edmonton region, with the Elk Point Co-op prices being the same as Edmonton and in some cases lower. The Co-op here has the privilege of lowering prices to accommodate competition and market demands.

Rodger added that the Co-op tries to be competitive as possible, and considers Quality, Price, and Service to be the three most important things to keep the customers coming through the doors. Rodger stated, "We make an all out effort to keep and maintain these standards."

To provide more efficient service to the customers, the Co-op will be installing three new electronic cash registers in the early part of January. Produce, bulk weiners, etc. that used to be scaled at the checkout will then be automatically coded as to price per pound, price per each, etc; a much faster and accurate method of weighing. Rodger's final remarks were his praise of the staff, stating that they all work together, help one another, are very flexible, and that they operate as one big happy family.

Excerpts of early history about the Co-op was taken from the 1978 opening flyer. Writer unknown.

The agony of defeat

On Wednesday, November 23, the Elk Point Elks, which is a "B" division team, played against the "A" division team of Goodfish Lake Flames, and were thoroughly clobbered. The first period saw the Flames pick up 6 goals to the Elks' 1. Penalties were as plentiful for the Flames who received seven; the Elks managed to pick up five penalties. Shots on goal were Flames 24 - Elks 10.

Second period, saw the Flames pick up three more goals, and the Elks scored 2. Most of the period, the two teams took turns in the penalty box. A major outburst between Elks' player Randy Ballas and Flames' player Herman Norton netted each man a game misconduct, and they spent the rest of the game in the dressing room. Flames Coach John Owen also received a game misconduct, apparently for using foul sign language, and he joined the spectators for the rest of the game. Altogether, the Flames received eight penalties, the Elks were given five. Shots on goal were Flames 15 - Elks 9.

In the third period the Flames went on to score eight more goals. The Elks managed to pick up two goals. Penalties were somewhat less than the second period, the Elks received five to the Flames three. Shots on goal were, Elks 7 - Flames 26.

Next game will be on Wednesday, November 30th, in the old Bonnyville Arena, when the Elk Point Elks go against the Goodfish Lake Kings.

Action during the Elks/Flames game.

Why push the teachers of the Elk Island Regional to strike on December 1st?

Federal Government guideline for 1983	- 6%
Cost of living increase for 1983	- 5%
Provincial education grant increases 1983	- 5%
Other teacher settlements for 1983	- 5%

The teachers in Elk Island are asking for a 5% increase.
The Board has offered 2.7%.

The teachers don't want a strike. They do want to be treated equally.

Paid for by the teachers employed by the boards in the Elk Island School Authorities Association.

Vogel Open House

Joe and Mary Vogel of Elk Point were honored by their children and many friends and neighbors at an Open House gathering on Sunday, November 20th, in the

by Irene Magnusson
Pioneer Circle hall, to mark the occasion of their 45th wedding anniversary.

Don then briefly spoke of the National Energy Program and the Crow; on the Crow subject, Don stated, that we have tried to look at this issue in a realistic way, and we also realized that we needed something as good or better than what we had, adding that the Legislation that has been passed gives us neither of these but has caused diversion amongst farm groups, Pool members against their leadership, etc. The main issue of the Crow debate is the ability of the farmers to pay more to move their grain and the method of payment. Don went on to say that the Crow benefit is being paid directly to the railroads in what he calls a "sweetheart deal" and that the same inefficiencies are still in effect. In closing, Don stated that the P.C. Party is in excellent shape - our new leader is performing very well and the Caucus is working together.

Bud Miller, M.L.A. from Lloydminster delivered a congratulation to Don, adding that we are fortunate and blessed to have him. Bud Miller went on to remark that Don was the most disappointed person in all of Canada when the P.C. were defeated. In closing, Bud wished Don every success in the future.

Charlie Mayer, M.P. from Manitoba, delivered the closing speech, first congratulating Maz, an affectionate nickname, he calls Don, on his nomination. Charlie Mayer went on to talk of Don's excellent reput-talk of Don's excellent reputation, and that he is highly respected in the House of Commons, adding that Don is not cynical, that he has perspective and is positive.

Charlie Mayer went on to speak of the present state of our Country, and that it is important that we have the best government possible, adding that Canadians deserve better than what they are getting. Charlie Mayer in closing stated that "Maz is still my man".

Zone Chairman, Marg Grosline presented Charlie Mayer with a gift of appreciation for his participation in the nomination. The meeting then came to a close, with wine and cheese social for all who attended.

Joe, born and raised in the rich farming district south of the North Saskatchewan River, where his parents before him farmed, married Mary Flasha on November 23rd, 1939. The parents of the young couple wished them to be married in a Polish Church, and the nearest one at the time was the church at Flat Lake.

There they all gathered for the wedding, friends and family in traditional Polish celebration. The hostilities which are listed in histories as World War II had just commenced, but surely that was not uppermost in the minds of the happy pair.

Joe and Mary farmed together south of the river until 1973, when they retired to town. There they raised their four children, Edward (Ed) and wife Ruth, of Elk Point; Emil and wife Lois of Drayton Valley; Chester and wife Cecille of Edmonton and daughter Florence (married to Ken Pinder) of Elk Point all joined in wishing their parents well on their 45th.

They have eleven grandchildren, whose visits keep them young. Mary is fond of plants and an avid gardener. Joe, not too well these last years, once pursued hunting and fishing, and still enjoys regular visits to the Pioneer Circle drop-in centre. Joe was born in Canada, but Mary came to Alberta at age of nine from Poland. She was employed in the Elk Point Hospital before marrying. They enjoy retirement in their home in Elk Point.
